

EMPIRE STATE RIDING ACADEMY SERIES

“What the Hay’s an E.S.R.A.S?”

The Empire State Riding Academy Series (E.S.R.A.S.) is a series of four horses shows designed to give lesson students an introduction to horse showing. These shows are open only to lesson students (children and adults) riding lesson horses. Students from about a dozen local stables are invited to participate.

2011 E.S.R.A.S. Show Dates:

Saturday, May 14th, Lehman Farms

Saturday, June 4th, Huntington Meadow Stables

Saturday, July 30th, Way Farm

Saturday, Aug 27th, Canalside

You may show in as many or as few of the four shows as you wish. However, if you want to be placed on a team to earn team award points, you must commit to all four shows. Also, to earn individual points, you must participate in two or more shows.

Pick up the E.S.R.A.S. rules on the HMS web site (www.huntingtonmeadowstables.com) for more information about the classes offered, what to wear, how much it costs, what time your divisions begins, and locations of each show.

To give us an idea of who plans to show this summer, please fill out this form with your parents, tear it off, and return it to your trainer as soon as possible.
